Katrina is a freelance illustrator based on the beautiful Bellarine Peninsula. She illustrates for a range of clients with a focus on children's books, homewares and cards.

Katrina aims to convey a sense of emotion, playfulness and tenderness in her illustrations. Her published titles include 'Cato's Can Can' (Juliet Sampson), 'A House of Mud' (Sophie Masson) and 'Christmas Under the Overpass' (Katie Flannigan).

Katrina has been teaching art to children since 2018 and in 2024 she launched her children's art studio in East Geelong 'Kids Art Room Geelong'. She offers fun and engaging art classes for children, teens and adults in a warm and nurturing environment.

Katrina enjoys visiting schools and running workshops for all ages. She is a passionate educator who loves to share her knowledge and enthusiasm of the creative process.

She aims to unlock each child's artistic potential to express their creativity and develop a lifelong passion for the arts.
